State Bank Promotions Announced

CPYRGHT

STATINTL

Three officers in the Greenwich executive office of the State National Bank of Connecticut are among nine officers promoted by the board of directors.

The promotions, effective immediately, were announced by bank President Benjamin Blackford.

Francis W. McAndrews, formerly assistant vice president, was promoted to vice president; Miss Emily A. O'Neill, associate trust officer, was named trust officer; and C. Tiffany Richardson Jr., assistant cashier, was elected vice president.

Mr. McAndrews, of 24 Perryridge Road, Greenwich, is a lifelong Greenwich resident, a graduate of Greenwich High School and the American Institute of Banking. He joined the former Greenwich Trust Co., later merged into State National, in 1937. He and his wife have two children.

Miss O'Neill, of 40 Elm Tree Place, Greenwich, joined the bank as a stenographer and bookkeeper 33 years ago. A Stamford High School graduate, she has taken special tax courses in the Practicing Law Institute, New York City, and was named an associate trust officer in 1958.

Mr. Richardson is a 1939 Harvard College graduate and a veteran of World War II Navy service. He spent five years with the Central Intelligence Agency, was a resident partner in a New York Stock Exchange firm in Panama, and was president of the Fairfield Equity Corporation before joining State National in 1962. He has two children and lives at 40 Rogers Road, Stamford.
